The State Senator.

Many Republicans may not be aware of the urgent necessity of electing a Republican State Senator from Essex County at the coming election. There are several important issues at stake; they are thoroughly appreciated by the Democrats and it would seem that they prepared to sacrifice everything to the election of Michael T. Barrett to the State Senster. The danger is that the Republicans may be caught napping and Mr. Howell that he has no doubt of his election. We believe his confidence is well founded, but unobserving Republicans must not for an instant suppose that the walk over which so apparently lies before Mr. Condit is an indiament of the consequent grumbling. Judicial reform, the preservation of the school fund of the State, and the school fund of the State, and the securing to the people just and equitable representation in the State Legislature and National Congress were the principles enunciated by James E.
